YOUNG MEN WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM
the effects of youthful follies or im-discretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid off the altar of suffering humanity. Dr.
SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN
There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting, or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milky hue, again changing to a dark and turbid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genital urinary organs.

WHAT HE COULD DO.

The Eureka Sentinel, in response to the criticism made on the State Superintendent of Public Instruction for abandoning his post by the various papers of the State, puts up a lame plea by way of asking the following questions: "Don't you think he did well to come to Eureka and make himself useful in his profession as an educator? What good could he be to himself or anybody else in Carson, where he had positively nothing to do, unless, perhaps, to open the door of the State Mineral Cabinet, for visitors to look at the specimens—which the porter of the State House could do as well as he?" and by making a thrust at the office of Lieutenant-Governor. No one ought to object to the Superintendent of Public Instruction going temporarily to the relief of any school in the capacity of an official of the State—because, in so doing, he would be carrying out, at least, the spirit of Section 9 of the school law, which section, in unequivocal terms, provides for his expenses while performing his duties, but all have the right to criticize him when he abandons his official field and goes to work for any district as a paid teacher.

In addition to his duties as Superintendent of Public Instruction, he is ex-officio Curator of the State Museum of mineralogical, geological and other specimens. It is his duty, when visiting schools officially, to make inquiry, so far as is practical, into the resources of the mines situated in the respective districts, to inspect them, to collect specimens of ores, ascertain their value, and place them in the State Museum etc. Our State is a mineral State, and through legislation, the office of State Mineralogist was abolished.

Now the only representative head we have to the greatest industry of the State is the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The office of Curator—properly filled—would give him no cause to say there is nothing to do. By industry the Superintendent of Public Instruction could make his office the head center of information as to the mining interests of the State, and could accumulate facts, and place them in shape, so as to make them available to the State, and thus materially aid in inviting capitalists here.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

George Freden, Pa. on, formerly editor of the Sacramento Record-Union, is a convert to spiritualism. He has a long communication in Mind and Matter, of what he has seen and heard at seances, and seems to be thoroughly convinced and honest in his convictions. If the dead do come back to cheer the living, why is it that they usually come through the medium of some creaky wooden downy trumpet or money-making trickster. Why do they not come to us at our houses and make themselves known? There is not much comfort in the belief, when one is obliged to visit a dark, dirty room in the suburbs of some large city, and receive their information through some ignorant woman.

The Virginia Chronicle says that for whatever the future may have in store for us in the line of prosperity, will be due almost exclusively to the tenacious enterprise and liberal expenditures of James G. Fair. If that be the case, the prospect is certainly a gloomy one.

Congressman Cassidy has announced his intention to vote for Carlisle for Speaker.

The Savings Banks' deposits are $1,024,886,787, and deposits of State Banks and Trust Companies are $600,374,217. The deposits in National Banks October 2, 1883, are $1,063,601,156. The Comptroller estimates that the percentages that will be lost by holders of National Bank notes, by failure to present for redemption after 20 years circulation, by from one to 12 1/2 per cent. The highest amount of the first issue of legal tenders outstanding at any one time, was $449,464,572. Amount outstanding November 1, 1883, $11,473,855, a per centage of two-fifty-fifths on the highest amount outstanding.

Convinced Him.

Noway, Mich., November 19.
 The strike at the Chapin iron mine assumed an alarming aspect yesterday. A procession was formed with a brass band playing and flags flying, and from 800 to 1,000 men paraded the streets until forced to disperse by the extreme cold. The band instruments had become frozen up. Four hundred malcontents then approached Superintendent Stockbridge and requested an answer to their demands. He refused to yield, and was thrown down and kicked and knocked around generally, during which cries of "kill him," "hang him," etc., were freely uttered. As soon as he recovered himself he told the men that they could have anything they wanted; that they might as well go back to work and consider their day's work done at any reasonable hour.

A Sudden Death.

FOWLER, Ind., November 19.
 About 10:30 last night a man on horseback slowly rode to the jail from the southeast. After riding around the Court-house, he turned back and rode rapidly in the direction he came from. In about an hour 300 masked men rode into town. They hitched their horses, posted guards to warn away the citizens, went to the east door of the jail and broke it open. Old man Nelling, the murdered of Ada Atkinson, met them at the door of his cell, already dressed and ready to go to his doom. He was quickly walked to a carriage in which was a rope. The only remark that he made was: "Go a little slow, gentlemen, I am older than some of you." He was taken to Oxford and hung immediately.

Changed the Clocks.

CHICAGO, November 19.
 The new standard time of the 90 degree meridian went into general effect here at noon yesterday. All the roads running out of the city, except the Chicago & Northwestern, Milwaukee & St. Paul, Illinois Central and Michigan Central, began running their trains in accordance therewith. The leading jewelers set their chronometers back nine minutes and 33 seconds to correspond.

Downed the Champion.

CHICAGO, November 19.
 Sullivan, the pugilist, found a match here. He picked up a colored waiter at the counter in the Tremont, and laid him on the floor, but in the attempt to have further fun with him he was himself thrown upon his shoulders on the tiles. When the negro stopped to realize what feat he had accomplished he went out of the door like a flash.

Closing Down.

PITTSBURG, Pa., November 19.
 The Bessemer steel works at Homestead, Pa., closed down its rail department last Saturday night for an indefinite period. The remainder of the establishment will continue operations until the present orders are worked off, when there will be a general suspension, unless there is an improvement in the trade.

Evidently Romancing.

JAMAICA, L. I., November 19.
 The police arrested a young tramp this morning, who stated that the man who murdered Mrs. Maybee and daughter at Brookville, took him to see the bodies last Saturday. The authorities think the fellow drunk or crazy.

Eighteen Years in Court.

NEWPORT, November 19.
 Geo. C. Munroe, a prominent citizen, died suddenly this morning. Joy upon recovering a suit against the Aqueduct Bank, about 10 days ago, is thought to have had much to do with his death. The case has been in Court since 1865.

A Hard Deal.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., November 19.
 Saturday afternoon Mrs. Lydia Maybee 71 years, daughter 37, and Garret Maybee, husband and father, were brutally assaulted and house robbed. He has been paralyzed for 14 years, and blind 18 months. At sunset the mother and daughter went to milk, when Miss Weeks, living opposite, heard a cry of murder, and summoned the neighbors. When they reached the house the old man was suffering from wounds in the head and face, inflicted by a club in the hands of a thief who secured all the valuables. Maybee said he feared his wife and daughter were murdered. The barn was searched and the bodies of both found in a cow stall, covered with leaves and still warm. They had been choked to death. No trace of the murderer.

Plead Guilty.

BOSTON, November 19.
 Charles N. Dewey, who absconded after many forgeries, and defrauding firms here and in Montreal and who was arrested in San Francisco when about to sail for China, to-day plead guilty to nine counts for forgery.

 The opinion prevails that the schooner James Wade, from Detroit, October 28th, with schooner H. F. Murray, went ashore near Silver Creek and foundered with all on board.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES.

(PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.)

A Drunken Salvationist.

KINGSTON, Ont., November 19.
 There was a terrible row last night in Victoria Music Hall. An ex-member of the Salvation Army, while intoxicated, entered the hall and struck several individuals. Captain Thompson, aid-de-camp to Major Moore, commander for all America, undertook to quiet the disturbance and was knocked over on a bench and choked. Then four police entered and arrested the young man. A small riot followed; the crowd surged and pushed about the hall, the officers of the peace and army were surrounded and kicked; one was knocked down with the prisoner, and scuffed on the floor. The disorder was fearful, and the police eventually retired without their prisoner, and found great difficulty in forcing a passage through the mob on the street.

War in the East.

CAIRO, November 19.
 A letter from Jeddah dated the 13th, confirms the report of the death of the commander of the Egyptian forces and the annihilation of the Egyptian force which he accompanied. A force of 500 men landed at Toko and was cut to pieces; only 14 men escaped. On the 12th the rebels attacked Suakin, but were repulsed. A panic, however, set in, and the inhabitants, at last advised were flying to Jeddah. The convict station at Toko is in the hands of the rebels. Another Egyptian tribe has revolted at Jeddah. The situation has become extremely critical. The whole movement is due to slave traders in Upper Egypt, who profess to act in the name of Mahdi, the False Prophet.

A Free Fight in Africa.

LONDON, November 19.
 Advice from the British fleet on the west coast of Africa state that recently 150 English sailors were sent up the Niger to punish the natives at different points on the river for outrages upon explorers and traders. After shelling the town of Abaha, at the head of the delta, they ascended to Egga, a large town 200 miles from the mouth of the Niger, where they landed and were at once attacked by the natives, and a fierce fight ensued, in which three seamen were killed and several were wounded. The attacking party of natives were driven to the bush and the sailors returned to the fleet.

Rebellious Subjects.

BELOGRADE, November 19.
 Theodorevitch, editor of the Samon-prasta, a radical organ, arrested for complicity in the rebellion, died today in the fortress. He refused food since the first day of his imprisonment. Others of the radical committee are still in chains. These will be pardoned. The court martial sentenced to death Pape Milojce, a school master.

Did not Stand Fire.

LONDON, November 19.
 Later accounts from Jeddah state that Egyptian soldiers flew before the enemy, despite the efforts of the officers to rally them. The soldier saw Commander Moncrieff surrounded by the insurgents, defending himself with a revolver. The Egyptians' loss is 86 men and two officers.

In a Tight Place.

KHARTOUM, November 19.
 It is reported that the force of the False Prophet had surrounded the Egyptian troops under Hicks Pasha, who is short of provisions.

CANNED TOMATOES.

How This Important Branch of Industry is Carried on East.
The farmers of Hartford county, Maryland, have $1,000,000 invested in canning factories, and are building more. A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press describes the process of canning tomatoes: After being scalded, they are deposited on long tables surrounded by women called "peelers." The peeled tomatoes fall through a spout, and the operator presses his foot on a treadle. Instantly there is a spurt, and seeds, juice and pieces of tomato fly out; the can is full, the peeler has done his work. Small tin caps that fit in the groove are put in the can's mouth, and a brush dipped in a weak solution of muriatic acid is passed around the groove. The copper pressed a hot revolving cap- ping iron upon a piece of solder, and the cap is firmly fastened. The can is then submitted to heat, which expels all air from it through a minute hole in the center of the cap, and then the hole is stopped with a drop of solder.

A Fatal Drought.

An Inevitable Death.

A Sacramento policeman Saturday, noticed cruising near the corner of Third and I street, a Chinaman who looked as though he had business on hand. On searching him they found a large, murderous looking knife, with a blade about ten inches long and as keen as a razor; also a huge navy revolver. But that was not all, for under his blouse was found sixteen blank books, each about fifteen inches long, six wide and one inch thick. They were strapped around his body with wide bands of cotton cloth, fully protecting his entire body from knife wounds or pistol shots. As the books were without stiff covers, they could be very easily fitted to the body, making a very effectual armor.

Going Prepared.

Yesterday, says the Sacramento Record-Union, when the undertaker was embalming a Chinaman, preparatory to his shipment to his native land, one of his countrymen came in and placed a neatly-written document in one of the hands of the deceased and a fan in the other. Upon inquiring as to the object of so doing, the Celestial, pointing to the card, said: "If the man go to heaven, he letter of introduction." Pointing to the other hand, he said: "May be so he go 'nother place, he heap likem fan."

Railroad Taxes.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company says the Silver State has paid into the County Treasury $47,774.83, being the amount of State and county taxes due from the company for the year 1893. This is the heaviest tax ever paid by the company in this county, as the road-bed was assessed at $10,000 per mile this year. Everybody will admit that a long stretch of railroad is not a bad thing to have in the county when taxes are payable.

A Good Way to Build.

The Verdi Plating Mill Co., has just shipped several cottages to Fresno. The material was all cut up and framed, ready to nail up. They have several to make in that manner. The parties save freight, only paying for what is actually needed for the buildings.

BLACK BART.

He Pleads Guilty and Gets off With Six Years—His Travels After the Crime.
C. E. Bolton, alias Black Bart, has been sentenced to six years' imprisonment for his last robbery, near San Andreas. Bart has committed 23 robberies; the first one in 1873, and down to his last, committed Saturday, Nov. 3. Should Wells-Fargo prosecute him for all of his bold demands, he would spend the rest of his life in prison. After committing his last robbery he threw the sack of amalgam and gold dust into the end of a rotten log and covered it up with dirt, and then started down the ravine and brought up the other side, and started in the direction of Angel's Camp, north of the scene of the robbery. He walked along and left Angels to the left, buried his shotgun in a hollow tree, and threw everything away, except what he needed to get along with. By Monday night following he had walked to Brighton, near Sacramento, about 100 miles avoiding every one he met. On Tuesday morning he walked into Sacramento and got shaved. In the meantime he had found an old hat in a cab which looked respectable, and this he donned. He had his whiskers shaved off, leaving only a mustache and imperial. He went into a tailor shop and got measured for a suit of clothes. He wandered about town that day till the east-bound overland came along, when he bought a ticket for Reno. He wrote two letters, one to the laundryman, Ware, and one to his landlady at No. 37 Second street, saying he would be at home in a day or two. He stayed at Reno a few days, and then went back to Sacramento and got his clothes. On Saturday night he went to the city and slept at a city-front lodging house that night. He afterwards went back to his lodgings, and pursued his accustomed habits in the city until captured.
Little has been learned about the early life of this remarkable highwayman. He says that he is a New Yorker, but it is believed he came from Massachusetts. He was in the army with Phil Sheridan and rose to some rank—Captain, probably. What he did after the war closed is not yet publicly known, but evidence indicates that he followed the business of mining. He has a wife in the East, and of such good family that those who know her name refuse to divulge it. He selected the name "Black Bart" from one of Bulwer Lytton's novels, which records the doings of a highwayman whom he imitated.

A Card.

William Pinniger tenders his best thanks to his numerous friends, and the public generally, for the very liberal support accorded him in the past, and he begs to inform them that he has accepted a co-partnership with R. The new firm have added largely to their stock of drugs, chemicals, patent medicines, wines and liquors for medicinal purposes; toilet and fancy articles, etc. In the dispensing departments they make a specialty of getting the best and most reliable prescriptions, and are prompt in filling all orders entrusted to them.

Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"I am, Sir, New York, May 16, 1882. Messrs. J. C. Ayer & Co., Gentlemen: Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching, it being affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the itching and catarrh subsided, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. It took in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good."

Yours respectfully, Z. P. Wilds.

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrophulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.

PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; price $1, six bottles for $5.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Best Purgative Medicine cure Constipation, Indigestion, Headache, and all Bilious Disorders.

COAST ITEMS.

The Los Angeles flour mill uses crude petroleum for fuel. Fourteen daily trains now run over the roads between Salt Lake and Ogden.

Bodie has a curiosity. It is a grown Leghorn rooster with two horns over the eyes. Several children have been poisoned in San Bernardino from eating seeds of the acacia.

For the first three-quarters of this year the bullion yield of this State amounted to $1,800,000. Salt Lake City is spreading out beyond the Denver & Rio Grande toward Jordan's stormy banks.

It is estimated that 10,000 hunters are killing deer and buffalo along the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Governor Newell of Washington Territory, it is said, will sign the Woman Suffrage bill just passed by the Legislature.

John A. Clark and Frank Young, two Montana murderers, have been sentenced to be hung at Bozeman on December 27th.

The Silver Glance is milling ore which runs from 250 to 800 ounces of silver to the ton, and extends from grass roots down.

A blast in a limestone quarry near Bodie, recently uncovered a hoard of gold and silver in the solid rock and thoroughly petrified.

There is a report in circulation in Salt Lake to the effect that all good Saints have been ordered by the priesthood to refrain from entering into business on Second South street, the object being to crowd the Mormon merchants to one part of the town and let the Gentiles have a street to themselves.

The gross earnings of the Denver & Rio Grande from January 1, 1883, to October 31st were $5,449,550; for the same period in 1882, $5,393,290. These figures do not include the Utah lines. The approximate earnings of this road (including Utah leased lines) for the first week in November were: 1883, $153,800; 1882, $128,102. Increase, $25,700. Division of earnings: Colorado, $129,700; Utah, $24,100.

The Ward (Nevada) Reflex of last Monday says: From William Baker, who came over from Taylor yesterday, we learn that the Monitor mine is opening out big in the south end. The ore body is twelve feet in width, pitches into the mountain in a southeasterly direction, at an angle of 45 degrees; and assays from $80 to $5,000. It is chloride, black metal and born silver. He says he would give $1,000 an hour for the privilege of working the mine, as it looks, with four men, and would then make more money than the owners of the mine. The deepest working at this point is 65 feet, and the ore begins to look as if it were going down.

To Consumptives. "Golden Medical Discovery" is a concentrated, potent alternative, or blood-cleansing remedy, that wins golden opinions from all who use it for any humor, from the common pimples, blotch or eruption, to the formidable scrofulous swelling, or ulcer. Internal fever, soreness, and ulceration, yield to its benign influences. Consumption, which is but a scrofulous affection of the lungs, may, in its early stage, be cured by the use of this God-given remedy. See article on consumption and its treatment in Part III of the World's Dispensary Dime series of pamphlets, costs two stamps, post-paid. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, New York.

The Leading Magazine for Boys and Girls.

ST. NICHOLAS EDITED BY MRS. MARY MAPES DODGE.

THE New York Tribune once said: "In the avalanche of immorality literature that threatens the children, some strong, vital, wholesome, and really attractive magazine is required for their use. St. Nicholas has reached a higher platform and commands for this service wider resources in art and letters than any of its predecessors or contemporaries." The reference to the wide resources in art and letters commanded by St. Nicholas was never more fully illustrated than by the extraordinary list of attractions which that magazine announces for 1884. The following will be some of the leading contributors:

Louisa M. Alcott, J. T. Trowbridge, Captain Mayne Reid, H. J. H. North, Maurice Thompson, Julia Hawthorne, Ciss. Dudley Warner, Frank R. Stockton, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Joaquin Miller, John Hawthorne, Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney, Celia Thaxter, Mary Mapes Dodge, Lieut. Frederick Schwadka, E. S. Brooks, George W. Cable, Rose Hawthorne Lathrop, Chas. G. Leland, John G. Whittier, Susan Fenimore Cooper, "H. H.", W. O. Stoddard.

And scores of other distinguished writers. The best artists and engravers illustrate the magazine. It has been truly said that the reading of St. Nicholas is "A LIBERAL EDUCATION" For the boys and girls who are fortunate enough to have it. In no other book or periodical is instruction so happily blended with recreation and amusement. The price is $3.00 a year, or 25 cents a number. Book-sellers, news-dealers and postmasters receive subscriptions, or remittances may be made direct to the publishers, by money or express order, bank check, draft, or in registered letter.
